Dear Ken & Edith.

Here I am writing once again and hoping you enjoy hearing from me.

I am still at Long Binh and will be here for another three weeks.

I am having a better time here than at Dong Tam and am not looking forward to returning there.

This place may have the dust six inches deep, but it hasn't any sand which is some consolation.

There will be mud after a storm one day and the next day the dust is thick again. Everything is now looking beautiful and green will the next season just beginning to come on.

There has been a lot of Australians killed in the past week, which is the same operation I am supplying communications for. There was one Sig killed also, which makes three in all the years we have been up here.

A mortar landed on top of him while he was asleep. This happened at least about twenty miles away.

I just had a little of trouble
